

My Dear Friend.

We hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. We are writing to extend our sincerest invitation to you to join us at the "2024 2nd International Symposium on Transdisciplinary Care for Dysphagia (2024ISTCD)" in Tainan, Taiwan.

2024 marks the 400th anniversary of the founding of Tainan, a historic city in Taiwan. To commemorate this milestone, the Taiwan Academy for Dental Hygiene, together with the Tainan City Government's Health Bureau and Kaohsiung Medical University, is proud to host this significant academic event. The symposium, scheduled for May 4th and 5th, aims to shed light on "Interprofessional Education and Practice (IPE/IPP) in Swallowing Difficulties and Oral Care."

Esteemed scholars and experts from countries including the United States, Canada, Japan, and South Korea will be joining us as featured speakers. Their expertise and knowledge will provide invaluable insights into the field of dysphagia and oral care. Through their speeches, we hope to address the challenges related to chewing and swallowing difficulties and pave the way for more effective and integrated care in the future.

We believe that your presence at the symposium would greatly contribute to the success of this event. Your unique perspectives and experiences will undoubtedly enrich the discussions and foster meaningful collaborations among experts in the field. Additionally, you will have the opportunity to establish connections with professionals from different countries, further expanding your network in the industry.

We assure you that the symposium will be a knowledge-rich and memorable experience. It will cultivate an environment conducive to knowledge exchange, professional growth, and building lasting relationships with colleagues from around the world.

Please save the dates, May 4th and 5th, 2024, and join us in Tainan, Taiwan. Together, let us embark on a journey of innovation, comprehensiveness, and improved patient care in the field of dysphagia.
